Winter Dinner

William Blue Dining

William Blue College of Hospitality Management
Northpoint, 171 Pacific Hwy, North Sydney

Tuesday, 5 July 2011

6.30 p.m. for 7.00 p.m.

Partners and non-members are welcome

$30 per person with soft drinks/$40 with wines

Three-course menu of modern Australian cuisine, in a private dining room. Cost includes a choice from three entrees, three mains and three desserts followed by tea or coffee.

Menu features dishes such as scallop boudin, confit tomato and sauce vierge; chorizo sausage, and squid and fennel salad; steamed asparagus, egg yolk and spinach ravioli; crispy skinned Atlantic salmon, sautéed prawns and sweet corn, pink peppercorn sauce, potato and chive cream; roasted cannon of lamb, eggplant caviar, potato and chive cream; potato risotto, mushrooms and reggiano; and hot chocolate fondant, white chocolate mousse, and mixed berry compote. Soft drinks, wine, tea and coffee are included.

Gluten-free and vegetarian options available if ordered at time of booking.

The Society subsidises a portion of the costs for the evening.

The restaurant is a five minute walk from North Sydney train station and buses stop in Miller Street and on the Pacific Highway. See map overleaf.

RSVP Tuesday 21 June. Booking is essential. You can pay on the night if you have registered. Later bookings cannot be guaranteed as spaces are limited.
