Winter Dinner

William Blue Dining

William Blue College of Hospitality Management
Northpoint, 171 Pacific Highway, North Sydney

Tuesday, 6 July 2010

6.30 p.m. for 7.00 p.m.

Partners and non-members are welcome

$40 per person with wines/$30 with soft drinks

Three-course menu of modern Australian cuisine, in a private dining room. Cost includes a choice from three entrees, four mains and three desserts followed by tea or coffee.

Menu features dishes such as grilled scallops with seafood sauce; roasted fig, walnut and bocconcini tart; gnocchi piedmontaise with sauteed mushrooms, sage and truffle butter; beef fillet bourguignon with garlic mash; seared ocean trout with salad nicoise; Belgian chocolate praline with vanilla bean cream and strawberry bruschetta; and citrus tart.

Soft drinks, wine, tea and coffee are included.

Gluten-free and vegetarian options available if ordered at time of booking.

The Society subsidises a portion of the costs for the evening.

The restaurant is a five minute walk from North Sydney train station and buses stop in Miller Street and on the Pacific Highway. See map overleaf. Street parking nearby. Closest parking station is Ward St (off Berry St).

RSVP Tuesday 22 June. Booking is essential. You can pay on the night if you have registered. Later bookings cannot be guaranteed as spaces are limited.

I would like to attend the dinner at William Blue Dining.
